

De Colores Communique - February, 2022

Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in you. Show me the way I should go, for to you I entrust my life.

Be devoted to one another in Love.
Honor one another above yourselves.

From the Chairman

Greetings NFTD Family,

As we begin 2022, I am so encouraged with the fact that God is not done with North Florida Tres Dias. In fact, He is very much active in our community. We had close to 90 people at the P.O. training on Saturday. I look forward to the season I believe we are moving into. Please continue to pray for the Secretariat, Mark Savage, Annie Tillman, candidates that God wants you to sponsor, and the Weekend. God is going to do great things through this community. We must be in sync with the Father's heart and display His perfect love to everyone.

Be blessed and be a blessing.

De Colores,
Andy Fowler

From North Florida Tres Dias Spiritual Director

De'Colores Community!

What an honor it is to serve God and North Florida Tres Dias as the community spiritual director. I'm excited to get to be part of God's purpose prevailing through our obedience. I'm believing God for mighty things, and I'd like to take this opportunity to challenge each of you to commit to praying daily for the community and upcoming weekends. Scripture tells us in James 5:16 that the fervent and effectual prayers of the righteous avail much! Let's commit to flood heaven with praise and prayers!

Blessings,

Spirit of Idealism, Cooperation, and Love

Greetings Tres Dias Community,

As we are preparing for team meetings and ultimately for a weekend, I have been reading over the script. One of the things we ask the candidates to do at the very beginning of the weekend is to receive things in a spirit of idealism, in a spirit of cooperation and in a spirit of Love.

If you are on the teams of NFTD #63, can you serve in a spirit of idealism, which is not prejudging or coming with preconceived ideas of what Father God plans to do? Can you serve with a spirit of cooperation, even if it's not done the way you would do it or think it's supposed to be done or the way we've always done it? Can you serve with a spirit of love, putting others before yourself and your wants? God has mighty plans for the candidates and the team of NFTD #63...let's do our part and then experience all that He has for each of us!!

By the way if you're not serving on the team, these are great traits to serve with wherever God has you!!!

Men's Weekend #63

Greetings NFTD Family,

Father God is so amazing and has continued to Wow me through the process of planning Weekend #63. In just two short months we will be on the holy grounds of Camp Suwannee demonstrating the Kingdom of God in action. Our first team meeting is on February 12th, and I'm excited about getting together with these Mighty Men of God.

If you are not currently on the teams, ask the Lord whether you should be, or how you can serve the candidates in another way. Annie and I both have room on the teams for you if you feel led to serve.

Finally, please continue to seek Father God about who you can sponsor to attend the weekend. Remember we are looking for Christian leaders.

Women's Weekend #63

Tres Dias Family,

What an amazing journey Daddy God has me on right now. I can't tell you how humbled and honored I am to have been chosen to be the Rector for NFTD women's Weekend #63.

As I am walking this out and planning, I am so blessed to have such mighty men and women of God walking beside me. I want to thank my Head, Nicole Stanley, and my Asst. Head, Tina Kilgore, for their love and support through this. They are both wonderful!

My theme, "In the Palm of His Hands" has been on my heart for many years. I have a picture hanging in my living room above my desk that I look at it every time I am working on the computer. It has a picture of Daddy's hand reaching out and it says, "See I have not forgotten you. I have carved you in the palm of my hands." It has hung in every house I have lived in since I left my family home.

The security of being held in the palm of the most high God who loves us through all our messes is just a warm and fuzzy feeling that I pray everyone knows, and I pray that everyone knows the comfort of His love, the protection of our Father. (To Be Continued)

The team is forming; still room for some more. Please, if you have not put an application in to serve, be in prayer as to what Daddy would have you do. I know Mark still has room for more as well as I do.

We are preparing for team meetings. Our first is February 19th and we will be hearing our professors talk this coming Saturday. Please be in prayer for our speakers. I know they are listening and hearing and writing what Daddy would have them say to our new sisters.

I was so excited to see so many of the family come Saturday for the P.O. There was a great turn out and it did me so much good to see people come and want to learn about the purpose of Tres Dias. Every one of us has had our life changed because Daddy chose to use Tres Dias to teach us. We are so blessed to be a part of this family and I thank Daddy God every day.

I love you all so much. Thanks for loving me!!!!
